RELIEF SOUGHT

Plaintiff prays that this Court will grant the following relief in the case at bar as follows:

The actions by the Defendants and/or their agents using excessive force and assault was without provocation and failing to intervene to prevent the misuse of force and assault were done maliciously and sadistically and constitute cruel and unusual punishment under the Eighth amendment of the United States Constitution and the Constitution of Alabama 1901

Wherefore, Plaintiff request that the Court grant the following relief:

(A) ISSUE DECLARATORY JUDGEMENT STATING THAT:

(1) The physical abuse of the Plaintiff by the Defendants Johnson, Byrne, Hill, and Youngblood violated the Plaintiff's rights under the Eighth amendment to the U.S. Constitution and constituted assault and battery under state law.

(1) Defendants failure to take action to curb or stop physical abuse of prisoners violated Plaintiff's Eighth amendment right to the U.S. Constitution and constituted an assault and battery under state law.

(B) ADOPT BY REFERENCE relief sought marked "B" page 9 of "original complaint".

(C) AWARD COMPENSATORY DAMAGES IN THE FOLLOWING AMOUNTS:

(1) $100,000 jointly and severally against Defendants Johnson, Byrne, Hill, and Youngblood for the physical and emotional injuries sustained by Plaintiff as a result of attacks, and;

(2) $100,000 jointly and severally against Defendants Johnson, Byrne, Hill and Youngblood for payment to retrain your Plaintiff in a vocation suited for him after the attacks, and;

(3) $100,000 jointly and severally against Defendants Johnson, Byrne, Hill, and Youngblood for mental health evaluation, counseling, and medications needed to assist your Plaintiff through trauma suffered by the Defendants attack, and;

(4) $200,000 for lost wages your Plaintiff suffers because of the attack, and;

(5) $2,000 for damage caused to Plaintiff's vehicle by Defendant Youngblood's assault with a police vehicle, and;
